

UNIVERSITI INDUSTRI SELANGOR

Universiti Industri Selangor, better known as UNISEL is THE FIRST STATE UNIVERSITY in Malaysia. Established on 23 August 1999, UNISEL's unique purpose is to cater to the needs of the industry. The programmes are industry-oriented and aimed at collaborating with highly reputable universities globally to produce qualified and quality graduates. As the name suggests, its syllabi emphasize on bridging theories and practice.

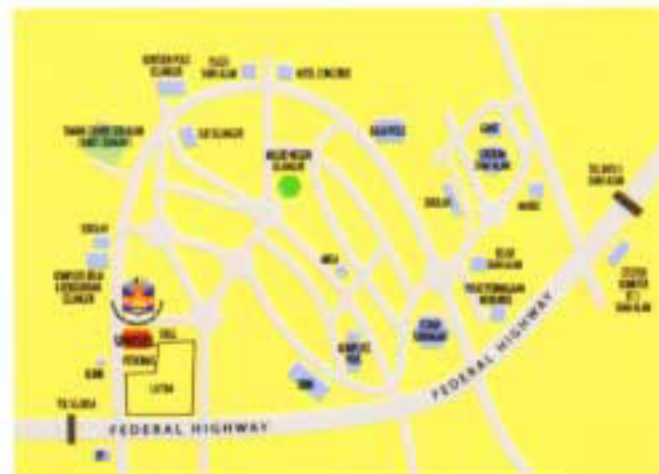

In an ever growing number of players, UNISEL has recognized the need to be different yet exemplary.

One of the unique reasons about UNISEL is the programmes offered to the students. The syllabuses offered are industrial-oriented in order to fulfill the demand of today's industrial sector. Master of Education in Discipline Management, as example, is the most popular programmes not only among the educators but also practitioners.

The way programmes have been conducted is another reason why UNISEL is unique and much in demand. Transient academic approaches are very much applied in nature making the graduates more acquirable.
